

Prancing on Mt. Precipice
(Habakkuk 3:1-19)

Introduction:

Babylon... a rod of divine discipline. For the eyes of faith that sees a grand design, Babylon is also God's gym to exercise, stretch and perfect the most important skill of life—trust in the Sovereign God. It's not for the faint of heart but it's been reserved for those in it over the long haul. When bad times come, you'd want to be numbered with them.

I. An intense _____ for the LORD's mercy (1-2)

II. A close _____ with God's glory (3-16)

A. The _____ of His holiness (3-7)

B. The power of His _____ (8-15)

III. A total _____ of one's trust (17-19)

A. Keep rejoicing in God's salvation

B. Keep _____ in God's strength

Conclusion: